"We need to talk."

Don't like this all useless, endlessly dragging on conversations begin, supposedly denying each other, but in the end - if one has realized to look behind the façade - give a world-changing value to themselves? So we need to talk about this and that, repetition, you may think and yet, if you let these words flow through your third eye several times, ...

High spirits must not get out of hand... so they say, but is this gift just a step further for a visionary, a step, that someone being known for being down-to-earth is never able to take? After sending out yesterday's REINHEITSGEBOT #17, I received the following words from one of the greatest visionaries of our time:

"My dear Scholli, and I thought, I had blown the fuses! Congratulations, Friedrich, you must have lost all your marbles! If I think myself into your visions, I feel joy, and a touch of lightness, in my soul. Take further steps, I will gladly join you. With all my respect,..."

Some private words followed his hymn of praise, one wrongly addressed to me, at least in my opinion, are his sudden flashes of inspiration of hardly conceivable imagination! Perhaps mine are of equal value for him? Possibly, so it came to my mind after reading his noble words, are only my visions truly feasible to me? Maybe my visions are not sufficiently explained to the reader, incomplete and quite inadequately presented? Have I made mistakes, why and how the readers are not screaming with joy, running through the countryside, armed with spades and tree seedlings? Why does not a single reader, except always the same few upright, want to know anything about the special fertilizer? Are they not ready yet or are they much further than myself? Am I the regressive one, who thinks he is ahead in supposed inaction?

Let us turn our attention away from the many questions, since I am not in a position to answer my readers. The solution lies, as always, in YOURSELF!

A much quoted topic of research covers the field of air, regarding which also a lot of questions were asked about our future lives. Above a certain altitude, see the mountain regions of the Andes and the Himalayas, altitudes are neither habitable nor in an excellent vegetative condition. So how, according to the mostly identical question of the readers, do I imagine a daily, permanent weaving in such a TREE OF LIFE, with a breathing mask perhaps?

Dear friends of cultivated thinking! It does no harm at all, first of all, to spend a few days appreciating and unfolding the power of the solar plexus and only then, if the connection to the higher SELF really should not work as desired, grant oneself the effort of a written question. I am certainly grateful, for sure, is it not only these five readers who are plagued by this brooding.

Irtha, generally as of now, has forests about 30 meters high, more or less, sometimes 100 meters, yes, but the rule is usually at a maximum height of about 30 meters. The air available to all of us is bad, very bad even, if we compare it with the breathing air about 13,000 years ago, when the giant trees were among us. Now we consider my articles of past, in which I was never tired of mentioning that these bastards began to strike a blow against all life on Irtha more than 13.028 years ago and IT - the evil sycophants - since then took its war against everything upright and truthful to the extreme.

As I tried to mention to some extent already, temperatures of strictly 15-18 degrees Celsius on Irtha in the summer months during this specific time were the norm, in winter between 5 and 12 degrees above 0, plus the air consisted of up to 50% pure oxygen! Look into the topic oxygen therapy and you realize that with only 3% more oxygen, the patient will receive HEALING and absolutely well-being.

What do you think, of course after a period of getting used to (=slow ascent) for our lungs and the cardiovascular system, a humanity settling high up in giant trees will experience in terms of a metamorphosis to a completely different state of mind and Wholeness? Oxygen in crystalline purity corresponds in the developmental stage to a body that cannot be defined at this point in time, the hands of research are tied in this respect, or rather did the satanic system not want to provide resources for this. All of them are dependent on the money-donors of the sugar und meat-industries, as well as the so-called mining companies. To whom may those have belonged for better or for worse...

But what is known for sure are the documentations of some improved purity of Oxygen, if one advances into higher, airy regions. If one thinks of the health resorts/climatic spas in Switzerland or in the French Alps, for example.

The temperature dependence in correlation to the purity of the air we breathe is also very important. The lower the temperature, even down to minus 3.1 degrees Celsius (what else!), the higher the air compatibility. Warm air absorbs up to seven times more water than cold air. Water lungs are a big problem nowadays, water in the lungs prevents the exchange of the most important food for every physical organism. Thus, in retrospect it often comes to serious secondary diseases with heat - and Yahweh laughs! - which a man in cold weather is not bothered about. Heavy metals in the air we breathe sink to the ground when it is hot, while in cold they ascend. Tree giants purified heavy metals from the air we breathed, the air was so pure, incomparable to today, even in the purest areas of the Arctic and Antarctic, it is dirty compared to then. Why, may I ask you, did Yahweh make a 'comet' crash into the Eider Bay and by means of this great blow produced not only the artificial sinking of Atlantis, but at the same time the greatest migration of peoples ever!? All advanced civilizations worldwide – WITHOUT EXCEPTION - are based on the bright spirit of our middle kingdom! The Nordland, embedded in giant trees more than any place else, gave the "One Eye of Satan" no possibility to apply burning effects, until...

A very important topic concerns the "brown fat". This is extremely healthy for the body, unlike the white wobbly fat. Brown fat forms as a protective shield against cold, if a human organism is regularly and consciously experiencing cold, taking cold showers, bathing in ice or simply go for a walk naked and barefoot in ice and snow. Brown adipose tissue is found, for example, in the firm breasts of women, while they turn completely flaccid, if there is white fat in them. The latter condition is based only on misbehaviour, but is immediately curable, so the women a) consumes only healthy fat and also like to freeze. Light goosebumps are extremely healthy and showering and bathing should not be done in or under warm water.

The same applies to the air you breathe, which is much healthier for your body if cold, than the warm chatter that costs every human the last ounce of energy. As I said, Satan laughs in the summer, so we waste away and only know how to drag ourselves from A to B. Who, in addition, likes to skin sizzle and to lay in the hot satanic heat, it is pitiful how white people breed themselves down to chocolate brown Negroes. In no case is my intention to lump Negroes together as inferior, but compared to the once superior race of Irtha...

But now to the breathing mask in the high altitude regions...

Giant trees spray their metabolic end product, the purest air, in unimaginable quantities into all the air layers of this earth. If such a giant grows 60 km into the air, the air we breathe is at 65 kilometres of altitude still absolutely health-promoting, of far better quality than our current one! Giant trees are the largest imaginable filter and cleaning systems, shields against the prismatic eye of Yahweh and much more of the best for this PLANET.

Such giant trees are energetic impulse-donors for Irtha, which are used against the devilish left-rotation, which is carried out everywhere. Look at the sports fields, horse racing events (these are incomprehensible for me anyway, because of the animals, same with dogs), with cars and much more, everything is done the left way around. Washing machines turn left, electric toothbrushes, mixers, everything has been turned to filth by the left-wing rabble in politics and economics... under very devilish motives!

Irtha's well-being and HEALTH-promising magnetic field, all good things turn to the right! Therefore our people in the left-turning supermarkets and public facilities walk a so called protection-sigilla, a shield knot, at the corners. They walk up to the corner, where it actually continues to the left side, there they turn around on their own axis to the right side, then continue until the next left turn. In this way they convert the left-hand turning field into a sacred rotation.

MIELE has, at the bright customers, plans to machines, as well as Such bright companies their money! No matter grow, you'll be able to plane, even at an altitude higher. This way it is holy the LAW of GOD have an because GOD is YOU! to make these giants easier to start than you might like to think. Did any of you ever think that trees are far more sensitive creatures than humans? What helps us humans if we are insecure or full of fear?

thousandfold request of many produce right turning washing some other kitchen-gadgets. and their products are worth how high Irtha's giant trees find best climate in every of 250 kilometers or much nature, only in this way can effect on the holy ones, First of all, it shall be our task grow, a process, which is

Is LOVE perhaps a magic fertilizer?

If, as of today, my cameraman here has been granted to me, since an own camera and its operation is not available to me due to the limiting conditions, I will document the local trees and their growth. It is indeed astonishing, what was achieved within few days by love and the special fertilizer.

In Liebe und Verbundenheit.
